

Thematic plan of practical classes in Latin language for 1st year students of the Faculty of foreign students

The thematic plan was approved at the meeting of the Department of foreign languages (protocol №12 of 29.08.2023) in accordance with the teaching program of a higher education institution on the academic discipline "Latin language" for the specialty 7-07-0911-01 "General Medicine", approved on 20.06.2023 registration number УД-395/уч.

(1 term)

ANATOMICAL TERMINOLOGY

Lesson 1. «From the history of medical terminology. Latin alphabet. Pronunciation of vowels. Diphthongs. Pronunciation of consonants. Digraphs».

Lesson 2. «Short and long syllables. Long and short suffixes. Accent rules. Word stressing».

Lesson 3. «Latin noun. Grammar categories. Lexical forms».

Lesson 4. «Structure of anatomical terms. Anatomical terms “Noun1 + Noun2 + (Noun3)” ».

Lesson 5. «Latin adjectives. Grammar categories. Lexical forms».

Lesson 6. «Structure of anatomical terms “noun + adjective”. Derivative adjectives. Compound adjectives. Primary data about prefixes».

Lesson 7. «First declension nouns and adjectives. First declension nouns of Greek origin».

Lesson 8. «Second declension nouns and adjectives».

Lesson 9. «I-II declension of nouns and adjectives: Revision».

Lesson 10. «Third declension nouns».

Lesson 11. «Nominative Singular endings of the third declension nouns. Third declension nouns of the masculine gender. Third declension nouns of the feminine gender. Third declension nouns of the neuter gender».

Lesson 12. «Third declension adjectives».

Lesson 13. «Fourth-declension nouns. Fifth-declension nouns. Anatomical abbreviations».

Lesson 14. «Comparison of adjectives. Names of muscles».

Lesson 15. «Revision».

Lesson 16. «Final test».

CLINICAL TERMINOLOGY

Lesson 17. «Introduction to the clinical terminology. Basic languages of clinical terminology. Structure of clinical terms. Concept “term-element”. Independent words as TEs. Doublets – characteristic feature of medical terminology. Stress in clinical terms. Term-elements with multiple meaning, variation and many components. Term-elements used in the formation of names of medical specialties and related disciplines, specialists, methods of primary diagnostic control, appliances and instruments».

Lesson 18. «Terms denoting various psychosomatic pathologies, methods of electro- and roentgenographic control».

Lesson 19. «Term-elements used in the formation of terms denoting surgical manipulations, ways of surgical aid».

(2 term)

Lesson 20. «Revision. Semi-final test».

Lesson 21. «Term-elements used in the formation of the names of laboratory-diagnostic definitions».

Lesson 22. «Final term-elements used in the formation of names of biochemical, physiological processes in the human body».

Lesson 23. «Latin and Greek prefixes in clinical term formation».

Lesson 24. «Term-elements used in the formation of terms denoting properties, qualities, relations, various signs».

Lesson 25. «Revision».

Lesson 26. «Final test».

PHARMACEUTICAL TERMINOLOGY

Lesson 27. «Introduction to the pharmaceutical terminology. Basic pharmaceutical terms and their definitions. Brief information about medicinal forms. Medicine names. Capital and small letter. Structure of medicinal preparation».

Lesson 28. « Standard prescription verbs denoting orders and instructions. Standard prepositional phrases used in prescription».

Lesson 29. «Latin chemical terminology. Latin names of chemical elements. Names of oxides, hydroxides, peroxides. Names of acids».

Lesson 30. «Latin names of salts».

Lesson 31. «Medical prescription. Prescribing liquid medicinal forms. Medicinal forms for injections».

Lesson 32. «Prescribing soft medicinal forms».

Lesson 33. «Prescribing solid medicinal forms. Other medicinal forms».

Lesson 34. «Abbreviations in prescriptions».

Lesson 35. «Final test».

Lesson 36. «Professional latin medical phrases. Gaudeamus».

Differential credit.