

THEMATIC PLAN

The discipline "Psychiatry and Narcology" the profile of subordination "General Practice" for the specialty 1-79 01 01 «Therapeutics»

1. Psychiatric care: principles of organization. International Classification of Mental and Behavioral Disorders (ICD). Methods of diagnosis and treatment in psychiatry and narcology.
2. Disorders of thinking, of speech, of perceptions, and feeling
3. Psychopathology of emotions, willpower and attention. Violation of memory, intellect and consciousness.
4. DISSOCIATIVE [CONVERSION] DISORDERS (Dissociative amnesia, Dissociative fugue, Dissociative stupor, Trance and possession disorders, Dissociative motor disorders, Dissociative convulsions, Dissociative anaesthesia and sensory loss) SOMATOFORM DISORDERS (Somatization disorder, Gastro-intestinal symptoms, Cardio-vascular symptoms, Genito-urinary symptoms, Skin and pain symptoms); Hypochondriacal disorder, Somatoform autonomic dysfunction. Depersonalization – derealization syndrome.
5. PHOBIC ANXIETY DISORDERS, Agoraphobia, Social phobias, Specific (isolated) phobias, Panic disorder, Mixed anxiety and depressive disorder.
6. OBSESSIVE-COMPULSIVE DISORDER (Predominantly obsessional thoughts and ruminations, Predominantly compulsive acts, Mixed obsessional thoughts and acts)
7. REACTION TO SEVERE STRESS, AND ADJUSTMENT DISORDERS (Acute stress reaction, Post-traumatic stress disorder, Adjustment disorders)
8. Dementia. Mental disorders in connection with the use of psychoactive substances. Schizophrenia and related mental disorders
9. Treatment of mental and behavioral disorders.
10. Urgent conditions in psychiatry and narcology

Chair of the Department

PhD, Associate Professor

N.N.Usova

