

THEMATIC PLAN LESSONS FOR SOCIAL MEDICINE 6th YEAR STUDENTS

Thematic plan was approved at a meeting of the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology with PD & PC

1. Medical laws and patient safety.
2. Socially significant diseases and conditions. Premature birth. Sexually transmitted diseases. Infertility.
3. Pregnancy in adolescence is an ethical framework for practical work and profession.
4. Ethical considerations in obstetrics and gynecology. Making ethical decisions.
5. Mastering the principles of communication: partnerships, orientation to the patient's priorities, needs and point of view, the principle of self-regulation.
6. The basic principles of educational work with patients. The reasons for the emergence of communication barriers and overcoming communication barriers in the activities of medical professionals.
7. Assessment of the health status of the population. Healthcare information system. Demographic data. Demographic statistics. Population changes – demographic dynamics.
8. Demographic trends and their implications for health and public health.
9. Methods of verbal and non-verbal communication