

LECTURE TOPICS AND RESOURCES

Discipline: “Psychiatry and Narcology” for 5th year student of LF and FIS

Lecture 1: “Schizophrenia and related disorders”

1. History of the study of schizophrenia.
2. Prodromal stage of schizophrenia.
3. Paranoid schizophrenia (F20.0 according to ICD-10).
4. Hebephrenic schizophrenia (F20.1 according to ICD-10).
5. Catatonic schizophrenia (F20.2 according to ICD-10);
6. Post-schizophrenic depression (F20.4 according to ICD-10);
7. Schizotypal disorder (F21 according to ICD-10);
8. Induced delusional disorder (F24 according to ICD-10);
9. Schizoaffective disorders (F25 according to ICD-10);
10. Medical indications for hospitalization of patients with schizophrenia.
11. Tactical and strategic goals of treating patients with schizophrenia.
12. Informing patients and their relatives before starting treatment.
13. General principles of treatment of schizophrenia.
14. Psychopharmacotherapy for schizophrenia.
15. Medical prevention of neurological adverse reactions when taking antipsychotics.
16. Psychoeducational work with the patient and close relatives of the patient with schizophrenia.

Lecture 2: “Affective mental disorders”

1. Affective mood disorders.
2. Manic episode (F30 according to ICD-10).
3. Hypomania (F30.0 according to ICD-10).
4. Mania with psychotic symptoms (F30.2 according to ICD-10).
5. Bipolar affective disorder (F31 according to ICD-10).

6. Depressive episode (F32 according to ICD-10).
7. Recurrent depressive disorder (F33 according to ICD-10).
8. Persistent mood disorders (affective disorders) (F34 according to ICD-10).
9. Stages of treatment of affective disorders.
10. Psychopharmacotherapy of affective disorders.
11. Prevention of suicidal behavior in affective disorders.
12. Psychotherapy for patients with depression.

Lecture 3: “Neurotic, stress-related and somatoform disorders”

1. History of the doctrine of neuroses.
2. Phobic anxiety disorders (F40 according to ICD-10).
3. Generalized anxiety disorder (F41.1 according to ICD-10).
4. Obsessive-compulsive disorder (F42 according to ICD-10);
5. Acute reaction to stress (F43.0 according to ICD-10).
6. post-traumatic stress disorder (F43.1 according to ICD-10).
7. Disorder of adaptive reactions (F43.2 according to ICD-10).
8. Dissociative (conversion) disorders (F44 according to ICD-10).
9. Somatoform disorders (F45 according to ICD-10).
10. Neurasthenia (F48.0 according to ICD-10).
11. Psychotherapy of neurotic disorders.
12. Psychoeducational work with the patient and his relatives.

Lecture 4: “Organic mental disorders”

1. General criteria for the diagnosis of organic mental disorders.
2. Dementia (F00-F03 according to ICD-10).
3. Dementia in Alzheimer's disease (F00 according to ICD-10).
4. Vascular dementia (F01 according to ICD-10).
5. Dementia in Pick's disease (F02.0 according to ICD-10).
6. Dementia in Creutzfeldt-Jakob disease (F02.1 according to ICD-10).

7. Organic amnestic syndrome not caused by alcohol and other psychoactive substances (F04 according to ICD-10).
8. Organic amnestic syndrome not caused by alcohol and other psychoactive substances (F04 according to ICD-10).
9. Organic hallucinosis (F06.0 according to ICD-10).
10. Organic mood disorders (F06.3 according to ICD-10).
11. Organic dissociative disorder (F06.5 according to ICD-10).
12. Organic emotionally labile (asthenic) disorder (F06.6 according to ICD-10).
13. Mild cognitive impairment (F06.7 according to ICD-10).
14. Personality and behavioral disorders caused by disease, damage or dysfunction of the brain (F07 according to ICD-10).
15. Psychoeducational work on the prevention of organic mental disorders.

Lecture 5: “Psychopharmacotherapy of mental and behavioral disorders”

1. History of psychopharmacotherapy.
2. Classification of psychopharmacological drugs.
3. Neuroleptics. Neuroleptic syndrome.
4. Antidepressants.
5. Tranquilizers. Addiction and dependence on benzodiazepine tranquilizers.
6. Normothymics.
7. Nootropics.
8. Psychostimulants.
9. Drugs with proven effectiveness used in narcology.
10. Side effects and complications of psychopharmacotherapy.
11. Psychotherapy and psychoeducation of patients and their relatives when prescribing psychopharmacotherapy.