

Department of outpatient therapy and therapeutic practices
dermatovenerology course

Thematic plan of classis on dermatology for IV year foreign students.

1. Psoriasis. Etiopathogenesis. Classification. Clinical picture of psoriasis Psoriatic arthritis. Treatment of psoriasis. Lichen planus. Etiopathogenesis. Classification. Clinical picture of lichen planus. Lichen planus of mucous membranes. Treatment. Pitiriasis rosea. Etiopathogenesis. Clinical picture Treatment.
2. Principles of the observation of the skin patient (anamnesis, examination, laboratory findings). Syphilis. Epidemiology. Classification. Characteristics of the pathogen. Immunity and flowing of untreated syphilis infection. Super -, reinfection. The incubation period. Ways of transmission. The clinical picture, differential diagnosis of primary syphilis.
3. Clinical picture, differential diagnosis of secondary, tertiary syphilis. Latent syphilis.
4. Congenital syphilis. The clinic of early, late congenital syphilis. The defeat of internal organs of syphilitic infection. Methods of laboratory of diagnostics of syphilis. General principles of treatment. Specific, preventive, prophylactic, treatment trial of syphilis. Clinic-serological monitoring after treatment. Criteria for removal.
5. Gonococcal infection. Etiopathogenesis. ICD X, clinical. Clinical manifestations in men and women. Gonorrhea girls. Laboratory diagnostics. Treatment. Chlamydia, trichomonas, mycoplasma infection: etiology, clinical presentation, laboratory diagnosis and therapy. Reiter's disease. Etiopathogenesis, clinical manifestations, diagnosis, treatment.
6. Tropical STI: chancroid, lymphogranuloma venereum, donovanosis. Etiology, clinical presentation, laboratory diagnosis and therapy. AIDS: transmission, risk groups, clinical manifestations on the skin and mucous membranes.

The duration of practical lesson -5:00, (36 hours).

Assistant

L.Poroshina