Speciality "General Medicine"

ACADEMIC DISCIPLINE "PSYCHIATRY AND NARCOLOGY" of the module "Mental Health"

Academic discipline outline	General patterns of development and functioning of the human psyche. Main psychopathological syndromes. Signs of major mental and behavioral disorders. Rules for providing psychiatric care. Medical and social problems associated with the use of psychoactive substances.
Resulting skills	Specialized competence. To apply psychodiagnostic methods and psychocorrectional techniques, methods and principles of treatment and prevention, and to formulate a clinical diagnosis for mental disorders (diseases) when providing psychiatric care.
Learning outcomes	A student must: know: organizational structure of psychiatric care; legal basis, rules for the provision of psychiatric care; he main provisions of the classification of mental and behavioral disorders; rules for initial psychiatric examination; legal grounds and rules for involuntary hospitalization of persons suffering from mental and behavioral disorders; rights and benefits of patients suffering from mental and behavioral disorders (diseases); medical and legal criteria, formulas of incapacity and insanity; the main psychopathological symptoms and syndromes; clinical criteria for the diagnosis of major mental and behavioral disorders; clinical manifestations of intoxication with various psychoactive substances and patterns of addiction development when they are abused; fundamentals of therapy of mental and behavioral disorders; rules of medical ethics and deontology; stages of rehabilitation of patients suffering from mental and behavioral disorders (diseases); the essence of mental hygiene, primary, secondary and tertiary psychoprophylaxis; be able to: recognize the onset of mental disorders;

	conduct differential diagnostics of mental norm from pathology; organize medical care for individuals with behavioral disorders in outpatient, inpatient, day care settings, and outside of healthcare organizations; provide emergency psychiatric care in emergency situations; to assess the degree of social dysfunction mediated by the presence of mental and behavioral disorders; apply and implement psychotherapeutic correction of neurotic symptoms of mental disorders; master: methods of conducting clinical interviews with psychiatric patients; methods of examination of acute intoxication with psychoactive substances; methods of prognostic assessment of clinical and epidemiological data; skills in organizing care and monitoring of patients with mental and behavioral disorders; methods for assessing the rehabilitation potential of patients suffering from mental and behavioral disorders; skills of psychocorrectional techniques adequate to the mental status of patients.
Semester(s)	8,9 semesters 11/12 semester - the sub-residency profile is “General Medical Practice”.
Prerequisite	Human Anatomy Biological Chemistry Normal Physiology Histology, Cytology, Embryology Medical Biology and General Genetics General Hygiene
Credit value	5 credits
Academic hours	140 academic hours, of which: 86 class hours The sub-residency profile is “General Medical Practice”: 106 academic hours, of which 70 class hours
Forms of midterm attestation	Credit